If you shop at Kroger and haven't designated a recipient for your community rewards, please do! We have 37 families supporting HTLS right now and they have "given" (without doing anything) $415.52 to HTLS in 3 months time! You need your Kroger card number, an email address, and 5 minutes. Share with friends and family that shop at Kroger, too. Let's reach our goal of 60 families on our next quarterly report!

What We are learning this week:

Reading

This week we will be reading "A Birthday Basket for Tia". We will be learning about syllables and context clues.

Math

We will be learning about extending place-value concepts for numbers to 1,000 and apply these concepts in completing number patterns.

Writing

We will be writing book reviews allowing students to share their ideas. Book reviews help students think about what they read.

Science/Social Studies

Students will learn about ways scientists find out about dinosaurs and fossils. We will also learn how our view of God's Word affects our view of fossils and dinosaurs.
