This week we continued our Harvest theme. Family photos were placed on our home pictures. The children tasted vegetables that they had never tried before and discovered that they actually liked some of them. Our doll house was put out to go along with our home theme.

We worked on recognizing our shapes. We are recognizing shape words and color words.

We continued the story of Moses as an adult. Moses asked for God’s help to get across the Red Sea and away from Pharaoh. We acted this out in class using balloons as our Red Sea. We also did a science experiment with oil and red water to see how it separated like the Red Sea did for Moses.

Our Indian headbands were decorated complete with real feathers. Along with our P3 friends ,we decorated our front door turkey with “what we are thankful for” paper feathers

J is the letter of the week. J is for Jesus and Joy. This is definitely a joyous time of year!

Friday, we took the time to remember our veterans who protect us from harm. We made flag handprints with a thank you veteran poem.

Our class enjoyed Donuts with Dad. I saw a lot smiles Wednesday morning!
