Dates to Remember

Classroom News

- Oct 2nd – 6th Fall Break -no school
- October 16th – School Picture Day
- October 19th and 20th – Parent/Teacher conferences
- October 21st –Fall Festival Day

This week we had so much fun. Mason and Hannah W’s moms came into school to work with us. First, we read the story about Charlie Brown and the Pumpkin Patch. Then, we got to decorate our own pumpkins to place in a hay bale pumpkin patch. You will get to see all the classes creations at our Fall Festival.

Thank you to everyone for your donations to our class Fall Festival Basket.

This week we read the story of young Samuel and how he used his ears to hear God speak to him. The 5th/6th graders did a wonderful chapel presentation about listening to God. Our class made headbands with large ears to help us listen better!

Many thanks to Amber Rosbottom and Jenna Williams for 1. putting our basket together and 2. helping us this week with our class hay bale pumpkin patch.

Letter E was introduced. We practiced writing it and making a booklet of E words. We practiced writing our first and last names. We completed our unit on Apples. Maybe some of you will be visiting Jacksons’ Orchard during the next few weeks.

Have a safe and fun vacation!

Pick up at the Portico Door. Enter the parking lot from Nashville Road Only and Leave going straight out onto Ashmoor Avenue.
