A NOTE FROM THE TEACHER

Information about the Teddy Bear Picnic will go home on Monday!

Don't forget that Show and Tell is next week. If your kiddo doesn't bring something on their day, they can "tell" about what they would have brought!

I have placed a homework sheet in your kiddos folder. This isn't due until next Friday, the 26th. I will also send home another homework sheet on Monday as well. These can be turned in early, but they don't have to be. Remember to practice your child's letters/letter sounds with them as often as you can. Miss Kali and I have been testing them often and quite a few are almost ready for sight words! Remember that practice outside of school is just as important as the work we do in school!

I will be sending home Progress Reports on January 31 with a personal note attached to each report. This will give you a little more information on your child's progress thus far. Please sign these and return them on Monday, Feb. 5. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask!

We will continue to talk about patience and kindness throughout the remainder of the year!

Q IS FOR QUIET

Find a quiet time each day for prayer.

What a short week! I can't believe we are already back to the weekend! We had a pretty full two days back after the snow days.

We worked a picture of a quail, practiced writing our Qq's, took a test on letter writing, and played around the world with letters/letter sounds.

Next week is a full week with LEAP, show and tell, our Teddy Bear Picnic and continuing to test the kiddos for progress reports!

DATES TO REMEMBER

Jan. 22 - LEAP with Mrs. Kristi

Jan. 23 - Warren County Spelling Bee at HTLS 6:00PM

Jan. 24 - Teddy Bear Picnic

Feb. 1 - Marco's Pizza Night

Feb. 2 - Happy Groundhog Day

Feb. 6 - 100th Day of Preschool!
(Unless more snow days occur)

ZIGGY THE ZEBRA

Since it was such a short week, Ziggy is going home with Miss Kim. He has the sniffles and needs to have the weekend to recover so he can be well enough to go home with someone next week. He loves going on adventures and cannot wait for his next one!
