Ms. Alagna's News

November 14-21 2011

Hello Parents-

Can you believe that November is half over already?? The week has been another great one!

Last week we have talked about how Jesus knows our name and how everyone is in God's family. We have also talked about using manners and hopefully they are doing better!

Next week we will start with the letter G. Since it is a short week will be doing Thanksgiving art and talking about what we are thankful for.

We did talk a little last week about what we are thankful for and wanted to share one of the responses. As we were sitting on the carpet going around the circle I asked Ayden what he was thankful for... He responded with, "I'm thankful to be able to go outside & slide!!" Ayden's answer has stuck with me... Sometimes we aren't as thankful as we should be & most of the time we take so many things for granted. So I hope this Thanksgiving I hope everyone thinks of the everyday things that we are so lucky to have or be able to do. Sometimes we get caught up in life & forget that God has blessed us with so much more than we deserve.

I'm thankful for HTLS & for all the children and parents that I have met. The kids might only be three but sometimes they can teach us some of the most important things in life.

I hope everyone has safe travels, a blessed & fun Thanksgiving!

Ms A :)
