

A Note from Mrs. Mitchell

January 6, 2012

Dear Parents,

We had a great week back to school, and are slowly getting used to our routines again!

Here are some events coming up soon:

Wednesday- American Girl Club 3- 4 p.m..

Thursday- Science Club 3- 4 p.m.

Friday- Crazy hair and face day

WE ARE IN NEED OF CLOROX WIPES FOR OUR CLASSROOM.
PLEASE TRY TO BRING IN ASAP! THANKS

Here's what's going on in our room next week:

Reading- 1st graders will read an animal fantasy story concentrating on the endings ng and nk of words and compound words. They will also learn how to summarize.

2nd graders will read a folk tale; learn cause and effect and compound words.

Math- 2nd grade will take a Chapter Test on mental math, more or less than, estimating and pattern rules.

1st grade will take a Chapter Test on fact families, addition and subtraction facts and problem solving.

Religion- We will read Jesus in the Temple, Jesus is Baptized, and Jesus chooses Disciples.

Social Studies- We have started studying about good, services in Our Working World. We will finish this week learning about transportation, needs, wants and shelter and conclude with a short test on these vocabulary words.

Hope you are enjoying the nice weather! Have a great weekend!

Blessings,

Mrs. Mitchell
