Stretching Ourselves

By
Alden Carter

This is a nonfiction story about children with Cerebral Palsy.

How do Emily, Nic, and Tanner adapt to cerebral palsy?

Dioramas

The 5th graders will be constructing individual dioramas from a favorite library book that they have read. We discussed these last week and again today. The dioramas will be due Friday, February 10. We will fill out information cards that will be displayed with project.

Thank You

We collected many cans (186 and counting). These cans were donated to a local food bank, my church at Faith United Methodist. We fed over 230 families during December and we are always restocking shelves. Thank you so much for your help.

If anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!
