

Reading

Thunder Rose
By Jerdine Nolen

Next week we will be reading broken

a tall tale. These stories are amusing and told with great exaggeration with bigger-than-life characters. Try to imagine what amazing thing Rose will do next.

What challenges does Rose set up for herself and how does she meet them?

Math

Mrs. Markel will be reviewing fourth grade skills for the first few weeks. On Friday, they will have a quiz over these concepts. She will follow up with a unit on Measurements.

U S History

Mrs. Markel will begin with a review of Maps and Globes. There will be several activities planned with these units. Following will be Native Americans.

Spelling

Please, Please study your words daily!!!

Science

We will begin an Earth Science unit on Rocks and Minerals. There will be a lot of outside information that your student will keep in a folder at school. I will let you know well in advance of an upcoming test on this unit followed by a trip to Mammoth Cave.

Pre-School Buddies

We are using 4th and 5th graders again this year to help walk P3 and P4 students to their classrooms each morning at drop off. So far the little buddies are still being walked to their rooms by parents. This will soon stop and we will need the BIG buddies more than ever. Thank you for all that are helping.

Upcoming Events

August 24: PTK production. Tory and Ben have parts.

After-School Clubs begin after Labor Day!
